The Waller Mural Room at Grossi Fiorentino

Grossi Fiorentino is a Melbourne landmark and a true gathering place of Melbourne and Australian society. The famous Mural Room has been a venue for many a celebration. The walls of the Mural Room are covered by the series of distinctive Florentine themed murals. Four students from Melbourne Technical College (now RMIT University) completed the murals under direction of the great Napier Waller in the 1930s.

Join Kenneth Park for an informal and entertaining lecture on the history of Grossi Fiorentino and its murals, and experience the atmosphere of one Australia's landmark restaurants.
